What We Learned

Do Something Different

"The one who follows the crowd will usually go no further than the crowd. Those who walk alone are likely to find themselves in places no one has ever been before."

- Francis Phillip Wernig

Fort Stevens State Park, OR

Take Risks

"Concerning all acts of initiative (and creation), there is one elementary truth, the ignorance of which kills countless ideas and splendid plans: that the moment one definitely commits oneself, then Providence moves too. All sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one's favour all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no [one] could have dreamt would have come his way."

- W. H. Murray, The Scottish Himalayan Expedition (1951)

Kings Canyon National Park, CA

Carpe the Diem

"Now listen, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.' Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes."

- James 4:13-14, New International Version (NIV)

The background of the slide features a wide-angle photograph of a desert landscape, specifically White Sands National Monument in New Mexico. The foreground and middle ground are filled with numerous white gypsum sand dunes, their surfaces undulating in various directions. The light is bright, creating sharp shadows in the recesses between the dunes. In the far distance, a thin, pale blue line of mountains or hills is visible against a clear, pale blue sky.

People + Experiences > Possessions

"I must have things, but things must not have me."

- Jill Briscoe

White Sands National Monument, NM

Be a Local Tourist

Your diamonds are not in far distant mountains or in yonder seas; they are in your own backyard, if you but dig for them.

- Russell H. Conwell, Acres of Diamonds

Forsythe Park, Savannah, GA

Adapt and Be Flexible

"In life we cannot avoid change,
we cannot avoid loss. Freedom and happiness are found in the flexibility and ease with which we move through change."

- Siddhartha Gautama

Sky Needle and EMP, Seattle, WA

Terroir

The “taste of a place”

Devil's Tower, WY

Rule of Anecdotal Value

I think the best way to live your life is to choose the experience that will have the most anecdotal value.

- Peter Sagal of Wait, Wait...Don't Tell Me

Don't Expect (or Want) Only Mountain Tops

A certain amount of opposition is a great help to a [hu]man. Kites rise against, not with, the wind.

- Lewis Mumford

Grand Tetons National Park, WY

You Are Nature, Not Separate From It

When one tugs at a single thing in nature, he finds it attached to the rest of the world.

- John Muir, The Yosemite

A Time For Everything

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.

-Ecclesiastes 3, New International Version (NIV)

Half Dome, Yosemite National Park, CA
